(By United Press)
SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 10.—Tear gas bombs have been ordered by Scranton police to prevent mob violence following the attempt of 1,000 strikers to compel the Diamond Washeries to suspend operations during the anthracite strike, public safety officials announced today.

A squad of twenty-five men armed with riot guns, continued on duty after dispersing the strikers late yesterday. Their demonstration was the first expression of mob violence in the anthracite fields since the strike began on September 1.

Owners of the Gibbons Washery at South Scranton today appealed for police protection, claiming the striking miners had threatened to blow up the works.

Police hurried to the scene but found no trace of any explosives. Several officers were left on duty at the place.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 10.—Table etiquette wasn't part of the education taught John Raynor so he is in jail today.

Patrolmen walking near a restaurant heard an unusual noise coming from the darkened building. It was a steady clicking accompanied by loud sighs.

Entering the building they found Raynor savagely tearing a piece of beef with his teeth—and making a horrible din about it. He admitted burglarizing the place.

"If they had just taught me to eat quietly at home I would not be arrested now," Raynor said as he was led into central station.

AMERICAN FLAG IS TORN DOWN IN JAPAN

HONG KONG, Feb. 10.—The American flag was torn down at the Hospital of the American Presbyterian Mission on Hainan Island when a group of five hundred communist students and Canton government troops attacked the Mission compound.

The hospital was in charge of Miss Caroline McCreery, an American nurse and her only aide at the time of the attack was a collic, for the remaining native attendants had taken refuge in a church.

The attendants were beaten by the attacking group but Miss McCreery apparently was unharmed.

MAKERS OF PERFUME ARRESTED AT START OF ALCOHOL PROBE

More Arrests Expected In Investigation In Cleveland

(By United Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 10.—While federal agents combed five cities gathering additional evidence and making new arrests, the federal investigation of operations of Superior Industrial Alcohol Co. got underway today.

The inquiry will center around the alleged diversion of thousands of gallons of alcohol in what is described as one of the most gigantic inter-state liquor conspiracies ever uncovered.

Besides company officials, a score of men and women in St. Paul, Brooklyn, Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Duluth and other cities have been arrested.

Two agents of the internal revenue bureau have been retained, "telephone numbers" and "telegram" railroad officials and scores of others involved in the alleged conspiracy have been subpoenaed.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—Round up of ten local perfumery manufacturers and alcohol dealers in connection with the alleged nationwide alcohol withdrawal ring, in which federal warrants for the arrest of scores of men were issued in Cleveland, was expected today by Assistant U. S. Attorney Friedman.

Two of those accused, Albert Rainowitz and James Silberstein, are under arrest here. Arrest of the others was looked for today and all will be brought before U. S. Commissioner Hanley for a hearing.

MACHINEGUNS USED BY BEER SYNDICATE MEMBERS IN BATTLE

War Over Business Of Bootlegging Ends In Shooting

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Machine guns were introduced as weapons in Chicago's beer war last night and the first spray of bullets wounded two members of a powerful beer "syndicate."

Martin Costello, a South Side saloon keeper, had been "riding the fence" as they say in the underworld. He had been buying his "real beer" from one syndicate one month and from another syndicate the next month. The McElrath-Salts crowd, with some of the city's worst gunmen on its payroll, wanted all of Costello's business.

That was the background, police said today, for the battle in which a machine gun was used.

John Foley, a labor leader and beer runner and William Wilson, a pugilist of some ability and also a beer runner, were representatives of the syndicate opposing the McElrath-Salts crowd. They were in Costello's saloon, talking to the bartender, when from a rear window came a spray of bullets.

Foley and Wilson fell with several bullet wounds each.

Wilson's wounds may prove fatal. The gun was quickly dismounted and carried away by the crowd that operated it.

PRESENT IS BEST CENTENARIAN SAYS

PLEASANTVILLE, O., Feb. 10.—Mrs. Nancy Gamble, who has smoked a pipe since she was a girl, became a centenarian today and she was ready to "tell the world that times have changed for the better."

Nearly all of Pleasantville visited the aged woman, who has never ridden on a train or street car.

A cake with 100 gleaming candles, was one of the gifts brought the centenarian, and the village school children marched to her home and presented her 100 carnations.

"I prefer the present to the past," said Mrs. Gamble. "Things are much more convenient now days. And 75 years ago the women's clothes were simply outlandish" she exclaimed.

Mrs. Gamble married George Gamble when she was 21. Together the couple hewed logs and erected their own cabin. Gamble was captured by a Confederate brigade during the Civil War and later died in a Confederate prison.

A broken hip suffered five years ago, made the aged woman an invalid.

M'CREIGHT DAMAGE SUIT IS ORDERED DISMISSED

Action Against Louis Vandervoort, Based On Shooting of Wilmington Policeman, Must Be Filed In Franklin County Is Belief

The $25,000 damage suit of Louise McCreight, Wilmington, administratrix of the estate of Emery McCreight, deceased, against Louis Vandervoort, filed in Common Pleas Court July 2, 1925, has been ordered dismissed by Judge R. L. Gowdy. Motion of defense counsel to quash service of summons and dismiss the action was sustained.

In her suit, Mrs. McCreight alleged her husband died from injuries received when shot by the defendant on the night of February 14, 1923, while in discharge of his regular duties as policeman. As a result of his death, she and her two children were deprived of their support, plaintiff claimed.

An identical action brought in Clinton County almost three years ago against Vandervoort was dismissed on grounds of non-residence of defendant. The action in Greene County was partially dismissed for the same reason and because of alleged lack of personal service of summons.

E. J. West and A. R. Clevenger are attorneys for plaintiff and attorney L. T. Marshall, Xenia, represents the defendant.

It is believed the suit can only be brought legally in Franklin County. Vandervoort, charged with the slaying, is confined in Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus, O. A similar suit brought by Mrs. Mary Matthews, widow of Elvas Matthews, Xenia patrolman, was settled out of court about a year ago.

BAVARIAN NATIONALIST PLOT IN TYROL UNEARTHED BY FASCISTI

Mussolini Will Reply To Stresemann Speech, Is Said—Italian Ambassador Will Return To Berlin At Once

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A Bavarian nationalist plot to overthrow the local Italian fascist domination in Southern Tyrol, especially in the Etsch (Adige) region, was reported in Bozen dispatches today to have been discovered by fascist authorities.

The discovery was said to have been made in connection with the fascist military arrest of fifty Germans possessing arms and munitions at the town of Lavarone.

Other arrests are reported pending.

Meantime, Rome dispatches to the United Press reported patriotic demonstrations in many Italian cities, inspired by the "Beyond Brenner" speech of Premier Mussolini which German Foreign Minister Stresemann answered.

The thought that the Italo-German controversy had perhaps been concluded with Stresemann's remarks to the German Reichstag yesterday, proved unfounded, for Rome dispatches related that Mussolini would make a reply this afternoon in the Italian senate.

Italian Ambassador Bosdari, of Berlin, is returning to Berlin after interrupting a lecture tour in Italy, the United Press learned at Berlin.

This return is temporary, however, and it is likely that he will soon be succeeded.

Meantime, Paris advices from the United Press picture France as largely approving Mussolini's declarations especially as France sees in the present agitation an attempt by Germany to fight Austria's battles as a preliminary to the much discussed Austro-German union.

AUTOISTS ESCAPE IN FALL OVER CLIFF

Firemen Rescue Men From Ravine

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 10.—Two men, who miraculously escaped death last night when their automobile plunged 100 feet off a cliff into Rocky River Valley, were in hospitals here today and although both were injured seriously, they will recover, hospital attendants said.

The men, Lewis Taylor, 32, and Nicholas Alex were driving along the cliff road when the machine skidded, paused on the edge of the precipice, then plunged to the river below.

The Rocky River fire department was summoned, the men strapped to the seat of their wrecked machine and hoisted to the top of the cliff by a block and tackle. Three firemen clung to the wreckage to help hold the unconscious men.

Taylor suffered several cracked ribs and body bruises.

Alex is suffering from possible internal injuries and concussion of the brain.

Pronounces His Own Death Sentence

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—A martyr to his profession, death for Dr. Felix A. Murphy, of Doylestown, Pa., infected with septic poisoning while performing an operation, today was said to be only a "matter of hours."

Dr. Murphy cut his hand recently while operating on a woman patient. His colleagues are now employing every resource of science in an effort to save his life.

After the operation, Dr. Murphy noted an infection in his injured hand. He pronounced his own death sentence, predicting he would be dead within a few days.

WOMEN HAVE OWN JAIL

PLAN MORE ARRESTS IN INVESTIGATION OF JURY TAMPERING

Former Mansfield Man Is Indicted On Charges

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 10.—Additional arrests in connection with the federal grand jury investigation of operations of an alleged jury fixing syndicate in the trial and conviction of Josiah Kirby, former head of the defunct Cleveland Discount Company, are imminent, federal officials told the United Press today.

The first formal indictment in the inquiry was returned late yesterday when James A. Donovan, former Mansfield saloon keeper and politician was charged with attempting to bribe and influence Gustav Baer, a Kirby venemore and former Richland county sheriff. Donovan is under arrest in California.

At the same time a subpoena was issued for Samuel Hoskins, Columbus attorney, acquitted two years ago on a liquor law charge in connection with the $1,000,000 Auerbach alcohol scandal. It was believed Hoskins will be questioned about the alleged jury fixing syndicate which, officials declared, is operated by a group of Columbus politicians.

Another witness before the grand jury was Leslie Pate, of the editorial staff of the Lakewood Post, who was summoned in regard to an editorial appearing the Post during Kirby's second trial.

In addition to Donovan, an Akron and Mansfield attorney have been detained.

Brockton, Mass., Feb. 10.—Less than twenty miles from Plymouth Rock, land-mark of Puritanism, "a blue law" which might have been written by Cotton Mather's iron hand, was to be put to test here today.

Twenty special policemen had been assigned to the little courthouse on Belmont St., where Anthony Bimba, editor of the communist newspaper "Freedom" of Brooklyn, N. Y., was to go on trial, charged with violating Massachusetts' 229 year-old blasphemy statute.

With Brockton divided on the question of the law's validity, feeling ran high as the hour for the court session approached.

Bimba was confident of acquittal. His friends hoped to prove the blasphemy law unconstitutional and because of its extreme age, invalid.

The courtroom ordinarily accommodates only fifty spectators and Judge C. C. Carroll King, announced today no special provision would be made to take care of an abnormal crowd.

ENGLISH WOMEN ARE OPPOSED TO WOMEN POLICE IS LEARNED

LONDON, Feb. 10 (U. P.)—A strong section of English women has gone on record in opposition to women police.

Out a referendum of the women's organizations of England as to whether or not they should support the bill introduced in the House of Commons by Miss Wilkinson, providing for women police, the all-powerful National Council of Women voted no.

The National Council of Women refused to join a delegation of representatives from women's organizations which proposes to visit Home Secretary and ask him to secure government support on behalf of a bill compelling all local and municipal bodies to add a certain number of women policemen to their constabulary.

At present London has a number of women policemen but they have actually no power of arrest. They stand around the kayer centers of town and if any girl approaches them with a definite complaint, they have no trouble in approaching a near-by constable and securing the arrest of the male offender.

Unfortunately, the average British Magistrate has an inborn prejudice against all constables and, it is suspected, against women constables in particular. And so the National Council of Women, arguing that no unfortunate woman ever appealed in vain to the British "bobby," suggests that there is nothing to be gained by injecting unnecessary sex antagonism into a situation which is difficult at best.

BABIES GET SUNLIGHT IN DARKEST DAYS IN CHICAGO COMMUNITY NURSERY

CHICAGO, Feb. 10 (U. P.)—If you would raise the "perfect child" you should see that your child has adequate sleep, a wholesome diet, and plenty of out-of-door exercise. Miss Lydia Roberts, assistant professor of home economics at the University of Chicago, says:

Miss Roberts has charge of the co-operative nursery at the University which has been established for use by the mothers of the University community.

Children are brought to the nursery in the morning and during the day go through a carefully supervised routine consisting of a balanced lunch, adequate hours of sleep and time for play.

A novelty that has been introduced in the nursery is a new violet ray lamp that gives the children the benefit of sun's rays during the winter months.

"The nursery," Miss Roberts says "has a three-fold purpose. It houses children who otherwise might not have the benefit of scientific care. It serves as an educational institution for mothers who attend fortnightly lectures to learn how to care for children. It is a laboratory for University students, who contemplate having a home."

The nursery takes care of about forty children daily whose ages range from two to six.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Central High Tossers Defeat Home Cadets 31 to 18

KOLB PROTEGES ARE LISTLESS BUT TAKE WIN BY EASY MARGIN

Captain Huston Back In Game—Scurry Chief Scorer

Although playing in the same listless style that has characterized the past two games, Central High School sailed easily through its game with the O. S. and S. O. Home at the high school gym Tuesday night, defeating Coach Boxwell's lads 31 to 18.

The contest was somewhat rough and the Home team's inability to make the most of its opportunities at the free throw line, lost any chance it may have had for emerging victorious over a Central quintette for the first time in years.

The high school stepped into a commanding lead as the game got under way and held an 8 to 3 advantage the first quarter. This margin was increased to 21 to 7 at the half.

Coach Kolb used two complete teams but neither squad showed the same dash and spirit exhibited in contests earlier in the season. The Home was completely outclassed and trailed throughout the game. Scurry, Central's lank colored tip-off man, probably showed the best form of all. Recovering his eye for the basket, the pivot man caged two fielders and three fouls to lead his mates in scoring. Ross scored a similar number for the Home.

Captain Huston broke into the lineup for part of the game for the first time since his illness two weeks ago and counted six points. Xenia made twelve fielders doubling the Home team's number in this respect. Thirty fouls were called during the game with the visitors making but six out of nineteen attempts and Central seven in eleven chances.

The high school will play Bexley High, Columbus, at Central Gym, Friday night.

Juniors of Central defeated sophomore 14 to 10 in a preliminary featured by close guarding of both teams.

ANTIOCH DEFEATED BY DAYTON COURT ARTISTS 36 TO 21

Showing surprising offensive strength, the University of Dayton Flyers maintained a fast pace throughout the contest to take the measure of Antioch College 36 to 21 in an interesting game at Yellow Springs Tuesday night. The Baujanites got away to a good advantage in an abrupt fashion and held a commanding lead during the fracas.

Coach Prugh was seriously handicapped in the game by having to use an entire new team. Under the co-operative system at Antioch, one division replaced the other at college and an entire new basketball squad is being used.

Bostwick, stocky guard, was in the spotlight time and again for Antioch, his long tries from mid-floor hitting the net on four occasions. Dayton's honors were evenly divided between Captain William Blake and Maht, although the former led in scoring with fourteen points.

Palm Beach Cleans Up Cloudburst Flood

Palm Beach, fashionable Florida resort, is pumping out its cellars and cleaning up the mess caused by the flood which swept through the city during a 12-hour rain. The cloudburst caused water to stand in some of the streets to a depth of 18 inches, handicapping traffic. Photo shows Bradley Place transformed into a Venetian canal.

Landslide Ties Up German Railroad Service

A landslide along the railroad between Berlin and Frankfurt, Germany, completely tied up service between those points for two days. Twenty-four hours after the Kansas authorities began investigation of a "tip" that the robbery of the Centerville, Kan., State bank on December 11, was an "inside job," three men including the bank's cashier, had been sentenced to serve terms in the state penitentiary. And all because Miss Esther Yeomen, 18, bookkeeper in the bank, feared for the safety of Lester C. Brownback, the cashier, who was on a leave of absence. She tried to learn his whereabouts from Gillen, a friend, who had gone to Kansas City, Mo. The men convicted were Brownback, Elmer Gillen and Ed Gates.

New Plane Promises 18-Hour U. S. to London Service

A company is being organized in New York to operate an 18-hour transatlantic passenger service with planes of a type developed by Dr. Armin De Muth, noted German aero designer. The plans for the transoceanic air liners call for 800-h. p. motors, and compartments in the cabin in the 147-foot body for 50 passengers and eight flight attendants. De Muth believes he has devised a way to make the craft unsinkable.

"Not Possible To Classify"

By Mack Sauer

ALL MEN ARE LIARS—EXCEPT YOU
After so many lies, it is a real treat to get a real honest-to-goodness fact sent in now and then. Here it is.

"MR. SAUER:—In looking over your column I have found some hunting stories that sounded like lies to me, but maybe they were so. I will tell you a hunting story which I know is true, for the man who told me never lied in his life. His name is George Hite.

"George says he doesn't care to hunt small game, but he just loves to hunt bears. He says that one time he was visiting his uncle in Virginia and that he took his rifle and went hunting bears. It was a terrible hot day in August and he went most of the day without seeing a single bear. Finally he heard the twigs breaking behind him and he looked around to see a bear coming after him.

"Well, sir, George says he turned around and started shooting and shot all the cartridges he had in his pocket and didn't hit the bear, so he started running, and, it being such a hot day, he almost ran his foot to death. He would look around and the darn bear was still behind him.

"He became desperate and looking ahead through the woods he saw a pond frozen over with ice. Remembering that his grandfather had told him a bear couldn't stand up on ice, he ran out on the pond and the bear followed him (but it could not make its way and he got away from it.

"I says, 'George, that's a d— lie.' And he says, 'Why?'
"I says, 'because you told me it was a hot day in August and hotter than Hades.' Then George says, 'Well, you must remember that that bear chased me from August to January.'"

If any one doubts this, call Mr. Gid Curtis at Xenia Motor Sales Co.

Mr. Miller of Eichman and Miller sold three radio sets through an ad on this page last week. He likes it. That's why he has another ad on here today.

The Theatre

If you would be a movie star, do not let lack of education or even a deficiency in intelligence stand in your way.

Filmdom's severest critics may consider it significant that in the list of qualifications for celluloid success prepared by Hollywood executives, intelligence comes fourth and education last.

The qualifications are supposed to apply particularly to actresses but of course the same requisites are needed by men seeking film fame. The list follows:

1. Character.
2. Personality.
3. Beauty.
4. Intelligence.
5. Imagination.
6. Grace, poise and carriage.
7. Knowledge of the drama.
8. Environment.
9. Age.
10. Education.

But, possessing all of these qualifications, the embryo screen star still has mountains of achievement to overcome before reaching a place anywhere near the pinnacle.

Herbert Howe, manager of Ramon Novarro, writing to a father who had written that his daughter was consumed with desire to "break into" the movies, advised the anxious father to "shoot her."

"He considered this better than having the girl see her illusions disappear as she faced the hard fight that in most cases falls short of its goal."

Dmitri Buchowetski, the director, says you can tell if a person will screen well by looking at his face through dark blue glass, which eliminates the coloring and makes the face appear as it would on the screen.

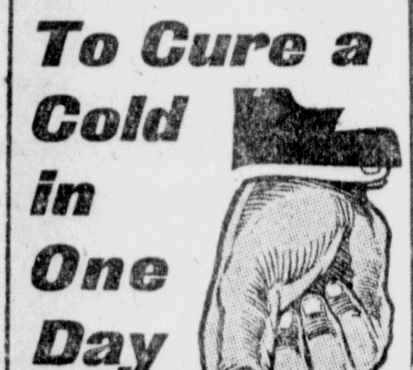

Having satisfied the ten qualifications and the blue glass test, you are still only within writing distance of the stars. Maybe that's why they call them stars.

Fans will see Gloria Swanson's new leading man, Lawrence Gary, when "Stage Struck," her latest vehicle to appear here, comes to the Bijou Theatre Thursday and Friday afternoon and evening.

The scenes, as everyone knows around here, were laid at New Martinsville, W. Va., on an Ohio river show boat, now almost an extinct specie. It is probably the first time a picture was ever screened on a show boat and it was actually the first time anyone so prominent as Miss Swanson and her retinue had visited New Martinsville.

The town was agog with excitement and took on a carnival appearance with its welcoming banners. The company of 100 was at the village two weeks and its members were royally entertained. The governor of the state paid a personal visit to be the guest of Miss Swanson for a day and the town's elite turned out for the

WRIGHT FIELD FIRE WILL NOT HAMPER NEW CONSTRUCTION

Captain Edward M. George, newly appointed quartermaster to supervise construction work of the new Wright Air Field on its 5,000 acre site near Fairfield, announced Tuesday that the fire which destroyed four buildings and equipment at Wilbur Wright Air Field Monday entailing $720,000 damage, will not delay building activities at the new government air station.

Captain George succeeds the late Colonel E. S. Walton, who died while in charge of building work at the air port, and arrived Tuesday to take charge of the construction work on the field which will replace McCook Field.

Plans of the new construction head for continuing work on the project are indefinite. He is optimistic that the $1,000,000 appropriation to finance the work will be approved by congress and building will not be delayed. The field is scheduled to be finished in 1927.

KELLY RECALLS OLD TIMES IN XENIA IN MAGAZINE ARTICLE

Xenians are mentioned in "You Can Teach An Old Dog New Tricks" an article by Fred C. Kelly, former Xenian, in the March issue of Heart's International and Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Kelly tells how dogs can be taught simple tricks and recalls his first dog and his trips to William Ambuhl's butcher shop for meat scraps to feed the animal. Mr. Ambuhl, who formerly conducted a butcher shop at Main and Collier Sts., has retired from business.

The article tells of Professor Gentry's first visit to town with his dog and pony show and how later Kelly and Bill Laughhead gave a dog show with their own pets in the back yard for which one penny admission was charged. Laughhead is now connected with Western lumber interests. He is an amateur cartoonist and several years ago cartooned Kelly as a feature of the Junior Woman's Club Kelly day program here.

Kelly also mentions Frank Gillespie, of Middletown, and his ability to teach tricks to dogs. Gillespie has been connected with Clark Poland's kennels here some time and trained "Guardman," the German police dog owned by K. L. Estabrook, Dayton, which has won considerable local reputation for its feats.

The writer explodes the theory that an old dog can not be taught new tricks when he says a dog two years old learns more readily than a pup.

SHERIFF ASSISTS IN DEATH PROBE

Sheriff Morris Sharp is co-operating with Howard E. Webster, Montgomery County sheriff, in conducting an investigation into the mysterious death of Wilbert H. Peters, 32, machinist, Dayton, who died in Miami Valley Hospital Sunday a few hours after he was found unconscious in the middle of the Valley Pike near the Huffman dam.

Peters died from a fractured skull, ribs and limbs. Sheriff Sharp is working on the theory Peters was a victim of foul play but no evidence substantiating this belief has been uncovered. It is also considered probable the man may have stumbled in the path of a passing automobile and was fatally injured.

FIVE HURT WHEN BOULDER HITS CAR POLICE ORDER TEAR BOMBS TO REPEL STRIKERS

MINERS SEEKING TO FORCE SUSPENSION OF ALL WASHERIES

Threats To Blow Up
Works Cause Move
To Guard Places

(By United Press)
SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 10.—Tear gas bombs have been ordered by Scranton police to prevent mob violence following the attempt of 1,000 strikers to compel the Diamond Washeries to suspend operations during the anthracite strike, public safety officials announced today.

A squad of twenty-five men armed with riot guns, continued on duty after dispersing the strikers late yesterday. Their demonstration was the first expression of mob violence in the anthracite fields since the strike began on September 1.

Owners of the Gibbons Washery at South Scranton today appealed for police protection, claiming the strikers had threatened to blow up the works.

Police hurried to the scene but found no trace of any explosives. Several officers were left on duty at the place.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 10.—Table etiquette wasn't part of the education taught John Raynor so he is in jail today.

Patrolmen walking near a restaurant heard an unusual noise coming from the darkened building. It was a steady clicking accompanied by loud clicks.

Entering the building they found Raynor savagely tearing a piece of beef with his teeth—and making a horrible din about it. He admitted burglarizing the place.

"If they had just taught me to eat quietly at home I would not be arrested now," Raynor said as he was led into central station.

AMERICAN FLAG IS TORN DOWN IN JAPAN

HONG KONG, Feb. 10.—The American flag was torn down at the Hospital of the American Presbyterian Mission on Hainan Island when a group of five hundred Chinese students and Canton government troops attacked the Mission compound.

The hospital was in charge of Miss Caroline McCreery, an American nurse and her only aide at the time of the attack was a collier, for the remaining native attendants had taken refuge in a church.

The attendants were beaten by the attacking group but Miss McCreery apparently was unharmed.

MAKERS OF PERFUME ARRESTED AT START OF ALCOHOL PROBE

More Arrests Expected
In Investigation In Cleveland

(By United Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 10.—While federal agents combed five cities gathering additional evidence and making new arrests, the federal investigation of operations of Superior Industrial Alcohol Co. got underway today.

The inquiry will center around the alleged diversion of thousands of gallons of alcohol in what is described as one of the most gigantic inter-state liquor conspiracies ever uncovered.

Besides company officials, a score of men and women in St. Paul, Brooklyn, Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Duluth and other cities have been arrested.

Two agents of the internal revenue bureau have been stained, "telephone numbers" and "teleggrams," railroad officials and scores of others involved in the alleged conspiracy have been subpoenaed.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—Round up of ten local perfumery manufacturers and alcohol dealers in connection with the alleged nationwide alcohol withdrawal ring, in which federal warrants for the arrest of scores of men were issued in Cleveland, was expected today by Assistant U. S. Attorney Friedman.

Two of those accused, Albert Rainowitz and James Silberstein, are under arrest here. Arrest of the others was looked for today and all will be brought before U. S. Commissioner Hanley for a hearing.

WILL PROBE ARREST OF 26 AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—American Minister MacMurray reported to the state department today that Tuominchun exporters at Peking have promised to investigate the holding as hostages of twenty-six Americans at Sianyang by Tuominchun troops.

Tuominchun troops on Feb. 4, occupied Sianyang and took all American residents as hostages. Sianyang is about an hours journey on the railroad back of Hangkow on the road to Peking.

PLEASANTVILLE, O., Feb. 10.—Mrs. Nancy Gamble, who has smoked a pipe since she was a girl, became a centenarian today and she was ready to "tell the world that times have changed for the better."

Nearly all of Pleasantville visited the aged woman, who has never ridden on a train or street car.

A cake with 100 gleaming candles was one of the gifts brought the centenarian, and the village school children marched to her home and presented her 100 carnations.

"I prefer the present to the past," said Mrs. Gamble. "Things are much more convenient now days. And 75 years ago the women's clothes were simply outlandish," she exclaimed.

Mrs. Gamble married George Gamble when she was 21. Together the couple hewed logs and erected their own cabin. The cabin was captured by a Confederate brigade during the Civil War and later died in a Confederate prison.

A broken hip suffered five years ago, made the aged woman an invalid.

MACHINEGUNS USED BY BEER SYNDICATE MEMBERS IN BATTLE

War Over Business Of Bootlegging Ends In Shooting

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Machine guns were introduced as weapons in Chicago's beer war last night and the first spray of bullets wounded two members of a powerful beer "syndicate."

Martin Costello, a South Side saloon keeper, had been "riding the fence" as they say in the underworld. He had been buying his "real beer" from one syndicate one month and from another syndicate the next month. The McElrath-Saltis crowd, with some of the city's worst gunmen on its payroll, wanted all of Costello's business.

That was the background, police said today, for the battle in which a machine gun was used.

John Foley, a labor leader and beer runner and William Wilson, a pugilist of some ability and also a beer runner, were representatives of the syndicate opposing the McElrath-Saltis crowd. They were in Costello's saloon, talking to the bartender, when from a rear window came a spray of bullets.

Foley and Wilson fell with several bullet wounds each.

A cask with 100 gleaming candles was one of the gifts brought the centenarian, and the village school children marched to her home and presented her 100 carnations.

ARREST SIX
ALLIANCE, Feb. 10.—With the arrest of six suspects, Alliance police believe they are near a solution to the fatal shooting of Krony Shinkles during a confectionery holdup here two weeks ago.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The Federal Oil Conservation Board, appointed by President Coolidge to survey the nation's petroleum resources and make recommendations for prolonging their life, opened hearings today preliminary to drafting a final report.

The hearings will continue today and tomorrow, before Secretaries Work, Hoover, Davis of the War Department, and Wilbur. Leaders of the oil industry have been invited to give their general views of the situation confronting the country and pass on the opinions of those close to the heart of the industry.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—A martyr to his profession, death for Dr. Felix A. Murphy, of Doylestown, Pa., infected with septic poisoning while performing an operation, today was said to be only a "matter of hours."

Dr. Murphy cut his hand recently while operating on a woman patient. His colleagues are now employing every resource of science in an effort to save his life.

After the operation, Dr. Murphy noted an infection in his injured hand. He pronounced his own death sentence, predicting he would be dead within a few days.

He put his affairs in order and drove from Doylestown to a hospital. His right arm was amputated but he grew steadily worse. Last night he sank into a coma. Oxygen was administered in an effort to prolong life.

M'CREIGHT DAMAGE SUIT IS ORDERED DISMISSED

Action Against Louis Vandervoort, Based On Shooting of Wilmington Policeman, Must Be Filed In Franklin County Is Belief

The $25,000 damage suit of Louise McCreight, Wilmington, administratrix of the estate of Emery McCreight, deceased, against Louis Vandervoort, filed in Common Pleas Court July 2, 1925, has been ordered dismissed by Judge R. L. Gowdy. Motion of defense counsel to quash service of summons and dismiss the action was sustained.

In her suit, Mrs. McCreight alleged her husband died from injuries received when shot by the defendant on the night of February 14, 1923, while in discharge of his regular duties as policeman. As a result of his death, she and her two children were deprived of their support, plaintiff claimed.

An identical action brought in Clinton County almost three years ago against Vandervoort was dismissed on grounds of non-residence of defendant. The action in Greene County was partially dismissed for the same reason and because of alleged lack of personal service of summons.

E. J. West and A. R. Clevenger are attorneys for plaintiff and Attorney L. T. Marshall, Xenia, represents the defendant.

It is believed the suit can only be brought legally in Franklin County. Vandervoort, charged with the slaying, is confined in Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus, O. A similar suit brought by Mrs. Mary Matthews, widow of Elvas Mat Jones, Xenia patrolman, was settled out of court about a year ago.

—Italian Ambassador Will Return To Berlin At Once

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A Bavarian nationalist plot to overthrow the local Italian fascist domination in Southern Tyrol, especially in the Etsch (Adige) region, was reported in Bozen dispatches today to have been discovered by fascist authorities.

The discovery was said to have been made in connection with the fascist military arrest of fifty Germans possessing arms and munitions at the town of Lavarone. Other arrests are reported pending.

Meantime, Rome dispatches to the United Press reported patriotic demonstrations in many Italian cities, inspired by the "Beyond Brenner" speech of Premier Mussolini which German Foreign Minister Stresemann answered.

The thought that the Italo-German controversy had perhaps been concluded with Stresemann's remarks to the German Reichstag yesterday proved unfounded, for Rome dispatches related that Mussolini would make a reply this afternoon in the Italian senate.

Italian Ambassador Bosdari, of Berlin, is returning to Berlin after interrupting a lecture tour in Italy, the United Press learned at Berlin. This return is temporary, however, and it is likely that he will soon be succeeded.

Meantime, Paris advices from the United Press picture France as largely approving Mussolini's declarations especially as France sees in the present agitation an attempt by Germany to fight Austria's battles as a preliminary to the much discussed Austro-German union.

COUNTRESS BLOCKED FROM STATES WHILE INQUIRY LAUNCHED

Woman Who Eloped With Earl Of Craven Is Barred

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Vera, Countess Cathcart, whose elopement three years ago with the young Earl of Craven, to South Africa, after she had been divorced by her husband was the sensation of British society, was denied permission to land when the Cunard liner Carmania arrived from Liverpool last night.

Immigration officers ordered the Countess stay aboard the vessel over night to appear before a special board of inquiry at Ellis Island today.

The Countess, who said she made the voyage to visit friends here and produce a play, "Ashes," of which she is the author, was indignant.

"By the way, why have you a statue of Liberty?" asked the vicious 28-year old noble woman. "When we came up the bay in the fog, we could hardly see it, but what's the use of seeing liberty if you are treated as a criminal just because you are a divorcee?"

Earl Cathcart divorced his wife in 1921, naming the Earl of Craven as co-respondent.

The latter and Countess Vera then eloped.

Under the Earl of Craven returned to his wife and the Countess came back to England, defiantly defending her conduct. She is at present engaged to a young English dramatist, Ralph Neal, whom she described as "fearfully good looking."

The Countess a few years ago, astounded society by writing a series of newspaper articles calling her ex-husband the stingy Earl.

—BLUE LAW 229 YEARS OLD IS TESTED

Brockton, Mass., Feb. 10.—Less than twenty miles from Plymouth Rock, land-mark of Puritanism, "a blue law" which might have been written by Cotton Mathers' iron hand, was to be put to test here today.

Twenty special policemen had been assigned to the little courthouse on Belmont St., where Anthony Bibba, editor of the communist newspaper "Freedom" of Brooklyn, N. Y., was to go on trial, charged with violating Massachusetts' 229 year-old blasphemy statute.

With Brockton divided on the question of the law's validity, feeling ran high as the hour for the court session approached.

Bibba was confident of acquittal. His friends hoped to prove the blasphemy law unconstitutional and because of its extreme age, invalid.

The courtroom ordinarily accommodates only fifty spectators and Judge C. C. Carroll King, announced today no special provision would be made to take care of an abnormal crowd.

ENGLISH WOMEN ARE OPPOSED TO WOMEN POLICE IS LEARNED

LONDON, Feb. 10 (U. P.)—A strong section of English women has gone on record in opposition to women police.

At a referendum of the women's organizations of England as to whether or not they should support the bill introduced in the House of Commons by Miss Wilkinson, providing for women police, the all-powerful National Council of Women voted no.

The National Council of Women refused to join a delegation of representatives from women's organizations which proposes to visit Home Secretary and ask him to secure government support on behalf of a bill compelling all local and municipal bodies to add a certain number of women policemen to their constabulary.

At present London has a number of women policemen but they have actually no power of arrest. They stand around the gay centers of town and if any girl approaches them with a definite complaint, they have no trouble in approaching a near-by constable and securing the arrest of the male offender.

Unfortunately, the average British magistrate has an inherent prejudice against all constables and, it is suspected, against women constables in particular. And so the National Council of Women, arguing that no unfortunate woman ever appealed in vain to the British "bobby," suggests that there is nothing to be gained by injecting unnecessary sex antagonism into a situation which is difficult at best.

BABIES GET SUNLIGHT IN DARKEST DAYS IN CHICAGO COMMUNITY NURSERY

CHICAGO, Feb. 10 (U. P.)—If you would raise the "perfect child" you should see that your child has adequate sleep, a wholesome diet, and plenty of out-of-door exercise.

Miss Lydia Roberts, assistant professor of home economics at the University of Chicago says.

Miss Roberts has charge of the co-operative nursery at the University which has been established for use by the mothers of the University community.

Children are brought to the nursery in the morning and during the day go through a carefully supervised routine consisting of a balanced lunch, adequate hours of sleep and time for play.

A novelty that has been introduced in the nursery is a new violet ray lamp that gives the children the benefit of sun's rays during the winter months.

"The nursery," Miss Roberts says "has a three-fold purpose. It houses children who otherwise might not have the benefit of scientific care. It serves as an educational institution for mothers who attend fortnightly lectures to learn how to care for children. It is a laboratory for University students, who contemplate having a home."

The nursery takes care of about forty children daily whose ages range from two to six.

BEFORE KIWANIS

Impressive story of the life of Lincoln, from his cradle to his death was dramatically told by Paul C. Martin, Springfield attorney, at Xenia Kiwanis Club, in the Goody Shoppe, Tuesday evening.

The address was one of the best, with Lincoln as the subject, delivered before local audiences, according to Kiwanians. Mr. Martin described the boyhood of Lincoln, his early struggles for an education, his political battles and his victories and sorrows a head of the country.

Forty-six Kiwanians attended the address, with two members received, Harold H. Oldham, McDorman Pumpfroy Co., and J. F. McLaughlin, business manager, The Gazette and The Republican. Two guests were also entertained, Roy McGregor, Springfield and J. A. Finney, Xenia attorney.

Next Kiwanis meeting will be held in conjunction with the Greene County Chapter, American Red Cross, at the annual meeting, Tuesday night.

Central High School, next Tuesday night.

ONE WAY TO STOP CRIME.

PERHAPS the most concrete reason why the United States is overrun with a dangerous class of criminals is set forth in an article by the Hon. William McAdoo, Chief Magistrate of New York City. It is worthy of production in its entirety. This magistrate says:

"When you consider how crime has increased without any increase in the number of convictions, you will begin to realize what a serious one our crime problem is. For instance, here in New York, with 240 murders in 1918, we had 28 convictions. That was pretty bad. But last year we had 133 murders and only 27 convictions. That shows there is something radically wrong.

"First, the police work under a great handicap because they are not allowed to clean up diseased spots from which crime springs. A police captain makes a raid on a vice district or gambling house and immediately certain interested parties who have tremendous pull, make a prodigious howl to have that captain transferred to a remote district.

"Also, American police lack the support of the courts. A European court will lock a man up if he is a potential criminal, but in this country, every day in the year, like water pouring through a sieve, a great army of professional crooks are run through the police courts. They go in one door and out the other. The police believe these men have no more right to be at large than the wolves up in the Zoological Gardens. The magistrate, on the other hand, looks at the case from a purely technical point of view and frequently discharges and reprimands the officer for making the arrest.

"I have noticed the predominance of young offenders. Burglars used to be stalwart men of middle age. Today they are dapper, young, under-sized runts. We are breeding a generation of young criminals who are strangers to love, affection, sympathy, kindness or charity. This is one of the most dangerous problems confronting this country.

"We must quit selling revolvers and enforce the law against carrying them as strictly as we enforce any law in this country."

There it is, all summed up in correct form by a man who ought to know because he is dealing in crime and with criminals each and every day. You can't expect to reform criminals until you first reform the courts. The world is still smarting from the injuries of the decision in the Loeb and Leopold case at Chicago. These young criminals should have paid the penalty with their lives and Chicago, now overrun with crime and murder and bloodshed as never before in its history, is probably reaping the harvest because of having sown weeds.

Swift justice counts, and fair justice. A murderer should not be permitted, by any legal hook or crook, to have his case delayed. He should be given a swift trial with a fair amount of justice and that is all he as a law-breaker, is entitled to.

FAULTS OF GREAT MEN.

THE old type of biography dwelt on the achievements of great men, but many modern writers think they give a better picture of the prominent people of the past if they bring out their faults as well as their virtues. For instance, emphasis is laid on statements that George Washington drank, swore and gambled freely.

When things like that are said, it should also be said that most of the people of his age did the same things. The standards of society have changed. We expect higher levels of conduct now. Few young persons will be incited to higher achievement by dwelling upon the failures of our national heroes.

THE NEWSPAPERS.

GROVE PATTERSON, editor of the Toledo Blade, said some interesting things about newspapers in an address in Syracuse, N. Y., last week. They are worth passing on. The gist follows:

The newspaper takes rank with the home, the church and the school as one of mankind's four greatest institutions. They give people more honest service for less money than any other business on earth.

It is the cheap and joyous custom to criticize newspapers. Nearly all public speakers from snake charmers to preachers attack the newspapers for the reason that it is the simplest and easiest way to get quick applause. Applause is the breath of life to luncheon club orators.

Contrary to public opinion a newspaper is not meant to be a record of the day's events. It is meant to be a record of unusual events. Another reason for intelligent criticism is the failure of the general public to realize that newspaper making has become, through years of accumulated experience, virtually an exact science. The rank and file ruthlessly attacks editors because they print so much of this and so little of that. What the people do not understand is that the editor—if he is a good one—knows what the people are interested in and what they are not interested in.

I am fed up on the loose-tongued assertions of after-dinner orators that the newspapers "are full of scandal and crime." You may be sure that the crime news criticizer always is the voracious crime news reader.

Unprejudiced surveys show that crime news does not predominate. As investigations made by the New York World showed that in volume business news was first, sports second, amusements third, politics fourth and police news fifth.

YOUR LAYER CAKE

Last week I spoke about the advantages of using pastry flour for pie crust, and for the same reasons, pastry flour is also best for cake. For pastry flour, being made from winter wheat, contains a larger per cent of starch and a smaller per cent of gluten than bread flour and therefore gives a much more tender texture.

To Make a Two-Layer White Cake with Pastry Flour, begin by creaming a piece of butter the size of a large egg and working into this two-thirds of a cup of granulated sugar. When well blended, add one-half cup of cold, sweet milk which has been mixed with the beaten yolk of one egg. Sift together one cup of pastry flour, one teaspoon of cream of tartar, one-half teaspoon of soda and a pinch of salt, then stir this dry mixture into the former mixture. Fold in the stiffly-whipped white of one egg, beat for three minutes vigorously, and turn the batter into two round greased layer-cake pans. My pans measure nine by nine inches in diameter on the bottom. Slip the two pans into a hot oven (if you use a Fahrenheit oven thermometer have the temperature at 350 degrees throughout the baking) and bake for 12 minutes in a gas oven (a little longer in kerosene, electric or coal oven).

Cool the two cakes by slipping them out onto large plates wrong-side-up. Meantime, prepare your filling. If you wish to serve the cake for a "company" meal, you will probably not consider it too expensive to use whipped cream; if whip one-half pint of double cream and sweeten it with a couple of tablespoons of sugar, then color it pink by adding a few table-spoons of the raspberry jam which can be bought at any grocer's. But the following is more economical for everyday use.

Lemon Filling for a Two-Layer Cake: Put into a saucepan three and one-half tablespoons of dry cornstarch powder and six table-spoons of granulated sugar; mix well, then add one and one-fourth cups of boiling water. Stir constantly over the fire for two minutes, then take from range, add one tablespoon of butter, the beaten yolk of one egg, two table-spoons of lemon juice, and the grated rind of one-half lemon. Cook three minutes more, cool, and spread between the two layers.

Yesterday, in an answered letter, I told how to make a Boiled Frost.

HOW ABOUT FLORIDA.

Dear Gazette:

While you folks of the North are enjoying your blizzards and snow and zero weather we are suffering the minor effects of cold winds, cloudy days and much rain. There are compensations, however, for the mosquitoes, gnats, sandflies and other Florida pests are conspicuous by their absence. We have had one or two light frosts, and a frost and a cold wind are the greatest but exterminators known to science. But the bright Florida sun is shining in all its glory today so there will soon be a startling resurrection of these human tormentors.

Well, Florida is filling up now. The whole country from "Dan to Beer Sheba" is here or is on its way, so that every hotel and tenement and nook and corner will be full to overflowing. Do you know that Florida is the third largest state in the union and can hold one-half the population of America.

In my last letter I told you something of the money craze of the people, the real estate dealers, restaurants and tenement houses. Now I want to give you a glimpse of the other side and show you their big heartedness and liberality that is shown the tourist.

The R. L. Hammer Improvement Co. of Tampa sent one of its big palace busses here and invited us to visit their subdivision. Mrs. S. and myself and twenty-five others took the ride of 400 miles across state and back the next day. The ride was delightful across the country and afforded us an opportunity to view about twenty towns and villages. Arriving at Tampa we were taken to one of the great Marshall restaurants and told to fill up as everything there was free. The meal consisted of all the delicacies of the season, including roast turkey. They then escorted us to the Hillsboro river bridge where one of the great steamers had anchored and had been converted into a grand hotel. The dining room and salon were magnificent and where we spent the night, the beds being luxurious and clean, of course. We intended we took a trip on the bay without fear of being seasick. The next morning we were served breakfast in the dining room and then were taken on a sight-seeing trip over Tampa. Then out to Sulphur Springs where the subdivision is located. After listening to a grand lecture on Florida we were served lunch. We did not purchase a lot but were treated with the same courtesy as those that did. At 5 p. m. we started our return and arrived at Coronada at 1:30 a. m. not at all worried or tired. The trip for five of us at R. R. fare at five cents a mile and board and lodging at 50c per night would have amounted to $50. But it simply cost us $2.00 for a little lunch and fruit on the way.

In a few days we visited the Country Club Estate at Deland on the same conditions—a free ride, and dinner at the club with a grand orchestra and dancing. All absolutely free.

While fishing on the Indian river a day or two ago a giant seaplane came along and dropped into the water, said a few words to the captain of a lug boat anchored in the stream and then quietly arose and floated away with apparent ease. It was a beautiful sight.

Dr. Spahr, Coronada Beach, Fla., Feb. 1, 1926.

SIDELIGHTS

ON
Greene County History

XENIA IN 1809.

An interesting side-light of Xenia and Greene County in their earliest stage of development is disclosed in a letter written in 1809 by the Rev. James Towler, then postmaster of the village, to an Eastern friend, which contains interesting general facts of the city and county. The letter follows:

"This town is the seat of justice of Greene County. It was laid out in the fall of 1803 by Joseph C. Vance, and now contains twenty-eight families and 150 souls, a court house of brick, forty feet square with a cupola. The town is washed by Shawnee Creek, branch of the Little Miami River.

"In the county are nine grist-mills, nine saw-mills, one fulling mill and one nail factory. Never failing and excellent springs are numerous. The Yellow Springs, which are deemed a natural curiosity, are nine miles north of this place.

"It takes its name from a yellow and pale red sediment which it emits from the water, and of which a large bank is found below the spring, over which the water has a fall of seventy feet into a hollow. It is considerably visited during the summer season, and affords relief to sore eyes, rheumatism and other such ailments.

"The falls of the Little Miami, three miles distant, are of considerable importance to the county. There are remains of artificial walls and mounds in several parts of the county.

"Our chief trade is in hogs and cattle, which are purchased by drovers for the Eastern markets and Detroit. There are two stores in town, which I consider a great evil, as they keep our neighborhood drained of cash. We have extensive prairies. Wolves have been bad on our sheep. Corn, wheat and rye are our principal crops.

"The soil is generally good and pretty equally divided between upland and bottom. The settlers are principally from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Virginia and Kentucky. Religion, Methodist, Seducers and Baptist. The county is twenty miles long and twenty miles broad, and is about 100 miles from Lake Erie."

FORMER RESIDENT OF XENIA IS DEAD

Mrs. Anna R. Miller, 80, former resident of Xenia, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William E. Ridenour, 1342 Highland Ave., Dayton, Tuesday morning, following a short illness. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

She is survived by one son and four daughters: Mrs. Lydia Robinson, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Hortense Hurley, Xenia; William Miller, Bellbrook; Mrs. Ridenour, Dayton.

Funeral services will be held at the Ridenour residence Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The body will be taken to Waynesville, O., and services will be held in the cemetery chapel there at 12:30 p. m. Burial will be made in Waynesville Cemetery.

Strength and power will come to weak, flabby muscles. All drug stores sell S. S. S. The larger bottles is more economical.

Today's Talks

THE DESIRE FOR ACCOMPLISHMENT

Enduring success is the result of something fine and real that is born in the heart.

The making and saving and investment of mere money is but a medium. Dreams have to be clothed. Money helps to do this. But without the dream and the heaven born desire for accomplishment, there would be no success.

I visited a beautiful home the other day. It was the dream of a young man who came out of college a dozen years ago. Now he is a man of great influence and power in his community, a man of ideals and a delightful friend and companion. He loves the thing which he has created—because it is a part of him. It's the story of his heart and the desire that was born there for achievement.

It has been this desire for accomplishment on the part of every man who has ever done anything, that has made a forward moving world.

It isn't enough to do your work well enough so that no one will criticize it. It should be so well done that folks will stop to note, to commend and to wish a part in it themselves.

The desire for accomplishment which is always alive in the heart of every man with vision, is that which inspires betterment all along the line of work.

To think better, to live better, to work better—that is what makes a man better.

What a great spectacle—the man who builds! Human life is a-laid. Every noble thought or desire or accomplishment in the end flows through the veins of all life, all history.

THE Bread and Butter Wife
By Violet Dare

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

SALLY LEE has gone to Atlantic City as public stenographer in a fashionable hotel after quarreling with TOM PORTER, her husband of a year, who resents her working even though she does it in order that he may live more comfortably.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XL—HIDDEN SECRETS

THE work seemed simple as Miss Barker outlined it to her and Sally found herself more interested in studying Miss Barker herself than the papers before them.

She was a tall, slant woman, much older than she looked, Sally decided. There was something about her manner and she seemed quite cynical sometimes. But the moment Mr. Granville appeared Sally noticed how he had changed. She laughed a great deal nervously and seemed almost coy and kittenish sometimes.

"Of course, you have to humor Mr. Granville a great deal," the older woman told her. "I guess all men are like."

She studied Sally carefully as though she had something to tell her, but was afraid to go on. "You'll get used to his temper in time and not mind it. I minded terribly at first. But after a while it doesn't seem so bad."

"Oh, I think he has a wonderful disposition. He is always so kind and pleasant and thoughtful."

"Yes; he was to me at first." Miss Barker checked herself and changed the subject to the ever-safe topic of the weather. But a few minutes later she impulsively asked Sally if she wouldn't come to dinner with her that evening.

"We can talk things over better then. Mr. Granville is dining out tonight so he won't expect you to work. Anyway, he told me that for the next few days he wouldn't expect you to do anything but with me and familiarize yourself with the work. After you get up to Nan-tucket I'll be too far away to help you. And he'll expect you to know everything."

There was something ominous in the way she spoke, but Sally refused to be downcast. And yet she felt that there were questions the older woman wanted to ask her but hesitated to put into words.

But when Sally came back to dine with her that evening she was greeted affectionately and Miss Barker seemed to feel no restraint in her presence.

"You seem such a child. How can you bear to give up everything and become just an automaton at the call of someone else? I was young, when I started—and I had friends then."

She turned away as though to hide her emotion from Sally, but she hardly noticed.

"Oh, but I don't mind working. I like it. And I think it is just wonderful to get a job like this that will take me wherever Mr. Granville goes. I've never been anywhere. You've been to Europe, haven't you?"

Miss Barker merely nodded.

"Oh, I think that must be simply marvellous. Think of seeing foreign countries—the cathedrals and art galleries and everything."

"Have you ever gone to see those things alone? Ever worked all afternoon and evening with a cross old man who tells the same jokes year after year and expects you to laugh at them? Ever eaten all your meals alone until you wish that a stranger might speak to you? Oh, it will be all right for you if you just work for a while. You're young and pretty and perhaps someone will marry you and save you from never having anything to call your own. Oh, forgive me—I didn't mean to depress you."

But Sally questioned her eagerly. Her remarks threw a whole new light on affairs. Was it possible that she had been building another castle of illusion that was bound to crash?

"I've had enough of wandering," Miss Barker told her. "I'm glad to stop. But perhaps you will like it." She wouldn't tell Sally any more, but having started a depressing train of thought Sally saw her future in a new light. Miss Barker's interests seemed all about her other lives than her own. She talked all the time of her sister's children, showed Sally pictures of them.

Sally was aghast at the array of cosmetics.

"This one is named for me," she said, showing Sally a photograph of a chubby little girl. "My sister lets me pick out her clothes, and now that I am going to live in New York all the time I will see her constantly and help her with her lessons and have her near me all the time. It is wonderful to have someone look up to you."

Just a glimpse of the older woman's loneliness, but it told Sally volumes of her starved life. A little later when she went into her bedroom to put on her hat and coat she glanced at her dressing table. There were photographs everywhere of her sister and her children, but that was not what arrested Sally's attention. It was the bottles and boxes—weapons with which she fought for fleeting youth. Sally was aghast at the array of cosmetics. So that was all Miss Barker had got out of life—a fight for youth, a pathetic effort to get back the years that she felt had been wasted. No people of her own—just her sister's children.

"I—I hope I haven't said anything to make you unhappy," Miss Barker told her as she was leaving. "I spoke impulsively."

"No," Sally told her. "I think you have saved me unhappiness."

Tomorrow—Two Can Play.

Central High Tossers Defeat Home Cadets 31 to 18

KOLB PROTEGES ARE LISTLESS BUT TAKE WIN BY EASY MARGIN

Captain Huston Back In Game—Scurry Chief Scorer

Although playing in the same listless style that has characterized the past two games, Central High School sailed easily through its game with the O. S. and S. O. Home at the high school gym Tuesday night, defeating Coach Box-well's lads 31 to 18.

The contest was somewhat rough and the Home team's inability to make the most of its opportunities at the free throw line, lost any chance it may have had for emerging victorious over a Central quintette for the first time in years.

The high school stepped into a commanding lead as the game got under way and held on 8 to 3 advantage the first quarter. This margin was increased to 21 to 7 at the half.

Coach Kolb used two complete teams but neither squad showed the same dash and spirit exhibited in contests earlier in the season.

The Home was completely outclassed and trailed throughout the game. Scurry, Central's lank colored tip-off man, probably showed the best form of all. Recovering his eye for the basket, the pivot man caged two fielders and three fouls to lead his mates in scoring. Ross scored a similar number for the Home.

Captain Huston broke into the lineup for part of the game for the first time since his illness two weeks ago and counted six points.

Xenia made twelve fielders doubling the Home team's number in this respect. Thirty fouls were called during the game with the visitors making but six out of nineteen attempts and Central seven in eleven chances.

The high school will play Bexley High, Columbus, at Central Gym, Friday night.

Juniors of Central defeated sophomore 14 to 10 in a preliminary featured by close guarding of both teams.

ANTIOCH DEFEATED BY DAYTON COURT ARTISTS 36 TO 21

Showing surprising offensive strength, the University of Dayton Flyers maintained a fast pace throughout the contest to take the measure of Antioch College 36 to 21 in an interesting game at Yellow Springs Tuesday night. The Bantamites got away to a good advantage in an abrupt fashion and held a commanding lead during the fracas.

Coach Prugh was seriously handicapped in the game by having to use an entire new team. Under the co-operative system at Antioch, one division replaced the other at college and an entire new basketball squad is being used.

Bostwick, stocky guard, was in the spotlight time and again for Antioch, his long tries from mid-floor hitting the net on four occasions. Dayton's honors were evenly divided between Captain William Blake and Mahrt, although the former led in scoring with fourteen points.

Lineup and Summary: Antioch (21) Pos. Dayton (36)

"Not Possible To Classify"
By Mack Sauer

ALL MEN ARE LIARS-EXCEPT YOU
After so many lies, it is a real treat to get a real honest-to-goodness fact sent in now and then. Here it is.

"MR. SAUER:-In looking over your column I have found some hunting stories that sounded like lies to me, but maybe they were so. I will tell you a hunting story which I know is true, for the man who told me never lied in his life. His name is George Hite.

"George says he doesn't care to hunt small game, but he just loves to hunt bears. He says that one time he was visiting his uncle in Virginia and that he took his rifle and went hunting bears. It was a terrible hot day in August and he went most of the day without seeing a single bear. Finally he heard the twigs breaking behind him and he looked around to see a bear coming after him.

"Well, sir, George says he turned around and started shooting and shot all the cartridges he had in his pocket and didn't hit the bear, so he started running, and, he being such a hot day, he almost ran his foot to death. He would look around and the darn bear was still behind him.

"He became desperate and looking ahead through the woods he saw a pond frozen over with ice. Remembering that his grandfather had told him a bear couldn't stand up on ice, he ran out on the pond and the bear followed him but it could not make its way and he got away from it.

"I says, 'George, that's a d--- lie! And he says, 'Why?' 'I says, 'because you told me it was a hot day in August and hotter than Hades.' Then George says, 'Well, you must remember that that bear chased me from August to January.'"

If any one doubts this, call Mr. Gid Curtis at Xenia Motor Sales Co.

The Theatre

If you would be a movie star, do not let lack of education or even a deficiency in intelligence stand in your way.

Filmdom's severest critics may consider it significant that in the list of qualifications for celluloid success prepared by Hollywood executives, intelligence comes fourth and education last.

The qualifications are supposed to apply particularly to actresses but of course the same requisites makes the men seeking film fame. The list follows:

1. Character.
2. Personality.
3. Beauty.
4. Intelligence.
5. Imagination.
6. Grace, poise and carriage.
7. Knowledge of the drama.
8. Environment.
9. Age.
10. Education.

But, possessing all of these qualifications, the embryo screen star still has mountains of achievements to overcome before reaching a place anywhere near the pinnacle.

Herbert Howe, manager of Ramon Novarro, writing to a father who had written that his daughter was consumed with desire to "break into" the movies, advised the anxious father to "shoot her."

"He considered this better than having the girl see her illusions disappear, as she faced the hard fight that in most cases falls short of its goal.

Dmitri Buchowsky, the director, says you can tell if a person will screen well by looking at his face through dark blue glass, which eliminates the coloring and makes the face appear as it would on the screen.

Having satisfied the ten qualifications and the blue glass test, you are still only within writing distance of the stars. Maybe that's why they call them stars.

Fans will see Gloria Swanson's new leading man, Lawrence Gary, when "Stage Struck," her latest vehicle to appear here, comes to the Bijou Theater Thursday and Friday afternoon and evening.

The scenes, as everyone knows around here, were laid at New Martinsville, W. Va., on an Ohio river show boat, now almost an extinct specie. It is probably the first time a picture was ever screened on a show boat and it was actually the first time anyone so prominent as Miss Swanson and her retinue had visited New Martinsville.

The town was agog with excitement and took on a carnival appearance with its welcoming banners. The company of 100 was at the village two weeks and its members were royally entertained. The governor of the state paid a personal visit to be the guest of Miss Swanson for a day and the town's elite turned out for the

New York City. Mr. Ben Loheide writes:—"I was formerly a victim of constant upset stomach, bad taste in the mouth and very disagreeable breath. My bowels were constantly constipated and nothing helped except temporarily. After using Carter's Little Liver Pills I have overcome all troubles and I am especially happy because of a sweet clean healthy breath."

Carter's Little Liver Pills are small, sugar coated, easy to take by every member of the family. Their action on the bowels is gentle. 25 & 75c red pkgs. Druggists

WRIGHT FIELD FIRE WILL NOT HAMPER NEW CONSTRUCTION

Captain Edward M. George, newly appointed quartermaster to supervise construction work of the new Wright Air Field on its 5,000 acre site near Fairfield, announced Tuesday that the fire which destroyed four buildings and equipment at Wilbur Wright Air Field Monday entailing $720,000 damage, will not delay building activities at the new government air station.

Captain George succeeds the late Colonel E. S. Walton, who died while in charge of building work at the air port, and arrived Tuesday to take charge of the construction work on the field which will replace McCook Field.

Plans of the new construction head for continuing work on the project are indefinite. He is optimistic that the $1,000,000 appropriation to finance the work will be approved by congress and building will not be delayed.

The field is scheduled to be finished in 1927.

KELLY RECALLS OLD TIMES IN XENIA IN MAGAZINE ARTICLE

Xenians are mentioned in "You Can Teach An Old Dog New Tricks" an article by Fred C. Kelly, former Xenian, in the March issue of Heart's International and Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Kelly tells how dogs can be taught simple tricks and recalls his first dog and his trips to William Ambuhl's butcher shop for meat scraps to feed the animal. Mr. Ambuhl, who formerly conducted a butcher shop at Main and Collier Sts., has retired from business.

The article tells of Professor Gentry's first visit to town with his dog and pony show and how later Kelly and Bill Laughhead gave a dog show with their own pets in the back yard for which one penny admission was charged. Laughhead is now connected with Western lumber interests. He is an amateur cartoonist and several years ago cartooned Kelly as a feature of the Junior Woman's Club Kelly day program here.

Kelly also mentions Frank Gillespie, of Middletown, and his ability to teach tricks to dogs. Gillespie has been connected with Clark Poland's kennels here some time and trained "Guardsman," the German police dog owned by K. L. Estabrook, Dayton, which has won considerable local reputation for its feats.

The writer explodes the theory that an old dog can not be taught new tricks when he says a dog two years old learns more readily than a pup.

SHERIFF ASSISTS IN DEATH PROBE

Sheriff Morris Sharp is co-operating with Howard E. Webster, Montgomery County sheriff, in conducting an investigation into the mysterious death of Wilbert H. Peters, 32, machinist, Dayton, who died in Miami Valley Hospital Sunday a few hours after he was found unconscious in the middle of the Valley Field near the Huffman dam.

Peters died from a fractured skull, ribs and limbs.

Sheriff Sharp is working on the theory Peters was a victim of foul play but no evidence substantiating this belief has been uncovered. It is also considered probable the man may have stumbled in the path of a passing automobile and was fatally injured.
